

COMMUNITY LEARNING

Join us for a discussion on learning in our community.

“Lifelong learning is associated with a wide range of economic and social benefits. It has the potential to maximize the talents and skills of individuals, and contribute to higher productivity, improved health, longer lives and a greater likelihood of community and civic engagement” Canadian Council on Learning. How can we enhance learning for all in our community? Sponsored by the Social Planning Council of Sudbury, this dialogue will be facilitated by the Community Learning Collective.

Monday June 22, 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm 67 Elm Street, Sudbury (Silverman Building)
