

The Social Planning Council of Sudbury Proudly Welcomes Craig Kielburger

An Inspiring Evening Highlighting Youth and Their Accomplishments - Both Locally and Internationally

Craig Kielburger, founder of Free The Children, has traveled to more than 50 countries visiting underprivileged children and speaking out in defense of children's rights.

Just months ago Craig was honored to be appointed to the Order of Canada.

An internationally renowned speaker, Craig has advocated for children's rights alongside leaders such as Bill Clinton, Nelson Mandela, Archbishop Desmond Tutu and the Dalai Lama.

With over 100,000 youth involved in more than 35 countries, Free The Children empowers young people through representation, leadership and action.

For more information on Craig and his organization, visit www.freethechildren.org.

Caruso Club, Wednesday, May 30th

- 6:30 Arrival, Youth Fair
- 7:00 Keynote Speech, Q&A
- 8:15 Booking Signing, Networking

Featuring: Youth Fair which will give youth from local schools and organizations the opportunity to display their achievements. We invite you to learn about the many inspiring projects in our community, lead by youth, that are contributing to building a better community.

Tickets are $35 for non-members, $30 for members and $5 for students.

To inquire about membership at the Social Planning Council, please contact us.

Tickets are available at:

- Social Planning Council: 675-3894 (ask for Sara or Jody)
- www.spcsudbury.ca (Interac, VISA, MasterCard and American Express)
- Black Cat Too (86 Durham St.)

All proceeds benefit Free The Children and the Social Planning Council of Sudbury.