

LAURENTIAN ARCHITECTURE
(THE NORTHERN ONTARIO SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE)
TO ANNOUNCE THE WINNERS OF ITS FIRST INTERNATIONAL IDEAS COMPETITION

Since May 2009, the School of Architecture has been inviting students and graduates of architectural programs to propose ideas for what a new school in Northern Ontario could be. Interest for this competition has surpassed expectations with entrants coming from as far as Korea, Russia, Egypt, and throughout Canada and the United States.

The competition is set to close this week in anticipation of the Jury's arrival on Monday. Sitting on the jury is Anne Cormier is the Director of the l'École d'architecture de l'Université de Montréal and is a founding member of l'Atelier Big City (www.atelierbigcity.com); Douglas Cardinal who is perhaps one of the most recognized architects in Canada (www.djarchitect.com); Craig Dykers is a principal architect at Snohetta Architects, a Norwegian firm with offices around the world (www.snoarc.no) who was recently awarded the top European prize for architecture; and last but not least, Dominic Giroux, President of Laurentian University.

On behalf of the School of Architecture Steering Committee, it would be a pleasure if you could join us for:
