See a story book come to life. Chloe is in a hospice; she is scared. Her First Nations nurse, Shawna, comforts her. She tells her of the legend of the Starry Bridge; Chloe hears the phrase "your guardian angel" for the first time. In the darkness of her room she calls out for her very own guardian angel. Wonder of wonders, hers appears and helps Chloe to overcome her fears. In a joyous adventure Nana takes Chloe for a walk in the clouds. Nana and Chloe play hopscotch as they walk along and eventually arrive at the magic carousel where Chloe is enchanted by a beautiful horse. As the story unfolds the carousel and horse play an important part in Chloe's journey to the Starry Bridge.

The story is told on stage by three actors; enhanced with colourful illustrations projected on to the screen. The show is complemented by the young voices of the Capreol Trinity United junior choir and by the presentation of a beautiful poem read by its teen aged poet. Cost of admission, $10.00 per person. All proceeds to the CIBC Run for the Cure. Space is limited. For reservations please call Michael at 705-858-0715

OPPORTUNITIES

Ariadne Women's Chamber Choir of Sudbury is seeking additional singers to begin its fifth season. Vocally versatile musicians with choral experience and an interest in singing music in a variety of styles and sometimes in unusual venues are welcome. The choir rehearses weekly and performs about six times a year. For more information: 705-523-0949 or 705-523-6562 or ariadnewomenschoir@gmail.com

Theatre Cambrian's looking for aspiring directors. Although the 2011-2012 season is barely underway, Theatre Cambrian is putting out a call for aspiring directors who may be interested in directing for the theatre company during the 2012-2013 season. This is the perfect way for someone to, on a volunteer basis, contribute to the artistic and culture mosaic on a grand scale here in Greater Sudbury. Currently, Mark Mannisto, is offering apprentice directorship for some of Theatre Cambrian's current productions as a means of preparing for solo directing in 2012-2013. Those interested in directing are asked to submit a theatrical resume to Theatre Cambrian no later than November 16th at 5:00pm. For more information on Theatre Cambrian, please call 705-524-7317 or visit our website at www.theatrecambrian.ca

New painting release by Gordon Drysdale. 'The First Ride' depicts the arrival of the very first new car in Sudbury. Purchased by William Bell, it was a 1911 Packard Model 30 Phaeton. The house in the background "Belrock Mansion" belonged to the Bells and overlooks Ramsey Lake. Bells chauffeur was Percy Gardner who went on to own the longest operating Chrysler dealership in Canadian history. Mrs. Katherine Bell is seated in the buggy while Frank Cochrane, a former mayor of Sudbury and federal politician as well as business magnate, is also pictured with a few local residents. Everything in the scene is accurate to 1911. 12" X 24" prints are now available at $150 each. View the painting and contact Gordon at www.gordondrysdale.com.
